

7 Questions with ...

Jackie DeWald

Manager, Eye Pro, Inc.

1. How did you get into the tanning industry?

Someone I previously worked with had been a college intern for (Eye Pro President) Brenda Fishbaugh and thought I would be a great fit for Eye Pro. I met with Brenda and 21 years later, we are still working together!

2. What do you like most about your job?

I have two very active daughters who are swimmers on their school team. Balancing practice/meet schedules, working full-time and running a household keeps me extremely busy. Having flexibility with my job is a blessing.

3. When you were a kid, what did you want to grow up to be?

I loved animals and wanted to be a veterinarian. Once I learned that it wasn't just about cuddling with cats and dogs, I realized that career wasn't going to work for me.

4. What's your biggest "pet peeve?"

Laziness

5. What would you sing at Karaoke night?

Garth Brooks "Friends in Low Places" – this song was huge when I was in college and brings back such awesome memories.

6. Necessities aside, what one thing could you not go a day without?

Like practically everyone else, I can't imagine getting through the day without my cell phone! Of course, I didn't grow up with a cell phone and didn't need one; however, it does provide a level of security and connectivity that is necessary in today's world.

7. If you were a super-hero, what power would you have?

I would love to have the power to heal people – so many are suffering, both physically and mentally. I would love to be able to make people feel better. ■